SKILLS

The Employment and Vocational Service (EVS) works in partnership with each client to help with:

- Getting clear about your vocational goals.
- Making a plan for working towards your goals.
- Finding pathways into employment.
- Paid casual work with our own supported employment agency ('Helping Hands').
- Connections within the Golden Bay Community.

In addition to employment support we are also offering a variety of groups such as craft, music, artist support and gardening with the aim of improving social confidence in a safe environment.

Who can refer?

Takaka Residential and Rural Mental Health, Alcohol and Drug Service, Probation, Golden Bay Community Workers and other approved services.

We can offer one to one support with:

- To listen to your ideas
- To work out what your goals are
- Looking at career paths
- Assisting you with writing a CV
- Helping you develop job seeking and interviewing skills
- Help with finding training opportunities, work placements and volunteer work
- Identifying training and employment options
- Providing access to a supported employment agency 'Helping Hands'
- Arranging support and mentoring in your workplace
- Helping you to get involved in the local community

'Helping Hands' is a supported work agency which provides paid part time employment to clients as a step towards gaining more permanent work in the wider community.

The purpose of the service is to enhance the quality of life and independence of people.

The key focus of this successful, demand-proven business is to provide supervised opportunities for assessment, skills training and self-development within day to day work regimes.

'Helping Hands' supervisors are available to provide mentoring and support.

The types of work 'Helping Hands' offers are mowing, line trimming, gardening, landscaping, painting, clearing and property maintenance.
